Registration deadline: Limited to available places

Registration fee: 20 €
Payment must be made during registration.

CONFIRMATION

---

All athletes must report to the registration desk, on the venue, to:

- Confirm their registration
- Receive their bib number

Confirmation must be completed before the start of the competition.

OFFICIALS

Jury President: Tom Dieschburg

Chief routesetter: Henrique Kelbert

FORMAT CONTEST

---

There will be 40 to 50 boulders to climb, with unlimited tries.

All climbers are required to record and confirm their own results using the official competition app. Each ascent must be checked off by the climber immediately after completion.

Once the qualification round is finished, the app will generate the overall competition ranking. The top-ranked climbers will qualify for the final round.

The finals will take place under the supervision of a jury.

There will be three final boulder problems for men and three final boulder problems for women.

ANTI-DOPING REGULATION

By participating in the competition, each athlete agrees to comply with the current anti-doping rules and regulations as established by:

- WADA (World Anti-Doping Agency)
- IFSC (International Federation of Sport Climbing)
- IFSC Europe

This includes adherence to all applicable statutes, competition rules, and anti-doping policies in force at the time of the event.
